MESSAGE FROM SCOTT

As I reflect on the evolution of Cambodian Children's Fund, and the lives of the children and families impacted by our programs, I feel such pride in what CCF and our donors have accomplished together, for some of the most impoverished and vulnerable people in Cambodia.

So many of the original CCF kids - straight off the garbage dump with nothing but hope - have new lives that were unimaginable back then. A full 70% have graduated university. The impact we made on their lives is reason enough to celebrate.

But the greatest legacy is just unfolding. With each impoverished child that transitions through CCF, graduating as a compassionate, educated and caring adult, we will change the course of a generation. Their own children will never know the same poverty and neglect. The next generation again will perhaps doubt that their grandparents had to scavenge on a landfill to survive.

Thank you for believing in our mission and for sharing this journey with us. It means the world to me.

Best,
